TW Order Info – Spring/Summer 2022

Sunday, 29 August, 12:00 noon, 'Alte Schmiedehallen'

An explosion of colour will dominate next summer's fashions. To what extent will this apply to footwear? What does the new chic look like? How much will stay casual? The answers to these and many more questions during this still challenging order season will be discussed by Gudrun Allstädt and Simone Reiner, both fashion editors for TextilWirtschaft magazine.

Speakers: Simone Reiner and Gudrun Allstädt, TextilWirtschaft magazine

on the topic of recycling/upcycling with a small exhibition of the results

Monday, 30 August, 12:00 noon, 'Alte Schmiedehallen'

Germany's Federal Association of the Footwear and Leather Goods Industry has a long tradition of honouring aspiring young designers for their special achievements. "But beyond that, it is very important to us, especially in these difficult times, to support young, creative people," emphasises HDS/L General Manager Manfred Junkert. That is why the association is presenting the HDS/L Junior Award once again this year. Honouring the most creative and innovative shoe designs, the briefing of the 2021 HDS/L Junior Award is 'Recycling / upcycling – create a new style with used materials!' and the judges will be looking for new, creative recycling ideas to reflect the current trend.
