Exhibitors & visitors

"We were very satisfied, had a consistently well-frequented booth and definitely a busy time. We consider SHOES DÜSSELDORF to be an important institution. That's why we make the brand tangible here and do a lot to ensure that the presentation is attractive and offers visitors an event atmosphere. After all, as an industry we can't give the retailers cheap advice to do more on the floor and at the same time present our shoes in white IKEA shelves.

We would like to also see one or two competitors make more of their appearance at SHOES DÜSSELDORF. SHOES DÜSSELDORF offers itself as a platform for this, after all, we all want a strong national trade fair that attracts visitors from all over Germany and from neighbouring European countries."

Lewin Berner, Managing Partner / CEO, Sioux Holding GmbH

"We like being here and we'll always be glad to come back. We appreciate SHOES DÜSSELDORF for the exchange with retailers and colleagues. In addition, we have also gained new customers, including from textile retail."

Michael Schreiber, Managing Director Cinque Shoes & Herrlicher

"It is important to be here. Not only in terms of orders. But also, in view of the enormous challenges in the market. There is so much to be talked about."

Michele Mimo, Sales Agent Cinzia Valle

"This is our first time at SHOES DÜSSELDORF with Cole Haan. Our location and also the response was very good - news is in demand. What is noticeable, however, is that most of the business cards are of international origin."

Christian Ast, Commercial Director Central Europe Cole Haan

"We are satisfied. Our activities for REXOR's 70th anniversary have been well received. One thing is for sure: the trade must manage a lot of tasks now. But those who come here are the proactive ones."

Günter Neunaber, Managing Director REXOR Shoe Purchasing Association

SEE & ORDER BY IGEDO EXHIBITIONS

"We really appreciate the show, because here we find everything in one place. We have neither the time nor the mood to travel from showroom to showroom."

Carsten Obermeier, Managing Director Neumann Schuhe, Hanover

"The first day was great, the second day was also fine. It is important to have a presence at SHOES DÜSSELDORF beyond our Düsseldorf showroom, because this is where people make chance acquaintances. This is where we gain new clients."

Ralf Butz, owner of Agents of shoes & accessories

"It is always worth coming to Düsseldorf. SHOES DÜSSELDORF is of great importance to us and a place of inspiration."

Klaudia Werdin, owner of Schuh & Mode Leukers, Straelen
